OUR CABLE LETTER.

Action of the Reichstag on the Army Bill.

Increased Pay for Subalterns Disallowed.

French Opposition to Recent East African Movements—Renewal of the Dreibund.

(Copyright by the New York Associated Press.)

BERLIN, June 29.—The Reichstag has passed the army bill to third reading without amendment. The efforts of the minority, consisting of the Freisinnige, Socialist and Volks parties, aided by a few Centrists, were futile. The House next passed to second reading the budget committee's report, striking out the credit demanded by the government for raising the pay of officers below the rank of Colonel. The government now having secured the passage of the army bill the House can adjourn early in July until November.

The British Ambassador and Chancellor Capri have had a conference on the subject of the French opposition to the East African agreement.

The English government has prepared a reply to France to the effect that if the Sultan accepts the protection of England or any other power the treaty of 1862 gives France no right to object and further that the agreement does not attack the independence of the Sultan, the protection not involving subjection.

A renewal of the Dreibund until 1895 is effectively assured in communications which have already been exchanged, committing the governments to the extension to that period of the compact.

Emperor William arrived at Elsinore this afternoon. He was met at the landing by King Christian, Crown Prince Frederick and other Danish royal and civil dignitaries and given a cordial greeting.

The Porte has sent private envoys to Berlin, Vienna and London on a mission relating to the demands for the Belgian independence, which are concurrent with Russia's insistence upon the immediate payment of 30,000,000 francs as a war indemnity. The policy of the Belgian Prime Minister is obscured, while Russia is reported to be preparing to back up her demand by sending the Black Sea fleet into Turkish waters.

The recent story of the undermining of the czar's palace at Gatchina proved to have been exaggerated. A barrel half full of dynamite was found in the cellar, and there is no clue as to how it came there. The chief of the private police has been dismissed on account of it.

The Panama Canal Scheme Collapsed.

PARIS, June 29.—The French press admit that all negotiations between Tiet Wyse, the representative of the liquidator of the Panama Canal company, and the Colombian government, for the extension of the Panama canal concessions and the resumption of work on the canal have collapsed and that all hopes of the bondholders are ended. The budget committee will submit this report to the Chamber of Deputies this week.

SHOT TO DEATH.

A Bulgarian Revolutionary Dies Like a Man.

SOFIA, June 29.—The sentence of death pronounced upon Major Panitza, for conspiring to overthrow the government, was carried out on Saturday. With a firm step he walked to the post and saluted the military officers present. He was then bound to a tree. Just before the order to fire was given, the condemned man cried out: "Long live Bulgaria!" The body was given to the widow. The execution took place at a camp near the city. Twenty-one bullets pierced his body.

A Chinese-Russian Railroad.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—Two Chinese officials and two British engineers have arrived at Vladivostok. They state that they have made a preliminary survey for a line of railroad through Mongolia and the Chinese government is desirous of extending the completion of the railroads to the Russian frontier.

No Irish Convention.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 29.—President Fitzgerald, of the Irish National League, has received a letter from Mr. Parnell regarding the proposed convention in this country, in which the Irish leader says he and his leading colleagues have given the subject anxious consideration and are unanimously of the opinion that no useful result would follow the convention at the present and that it should be postponed.

Drowned Boy Found.

ALBANY, Ogn., June 29.—All last night and today searchers, aided by divers and men with grappling hooks, searched the river for the bodies of Roscoe Cross and the two boys, Allen Matthews and Lory McFarlane, who went boat riding on the river on Friday and were drowned. Last evening they found the body of Cross below the falls where it had been carried into an eddy. The bodies of the boys have not been recovered.

CROOKED BANKERS.

Several of those in Philadelphia Being Called to Account.

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.—Magistrate Chesbro this afternoon issued warrants for the arrest of John J. McFarlane, president of the defunct American Life

Insurance company; Louis E. Peiffer, president of the defunct Bank of America, and Chas. W. Leugen, cashier of the Bank of America, charging them with conspiracy in obtaining $125,000 of the funds of the bank by crediting a loan to Richard E. Banks, an employee of the bank. This is the first step taken by the depositories to commence criminal proceedings against the officers of the Bank of America and accomplices.

JOURNALS AND JOURNALISTS.

The Florence Enterprise will soon put on a new dress.

The St. John's Herald is an exceedingly neat looking paper.

My old friend Downey is making a success of the Colorado Graphic at Denver. It is a very readable newspaper.

MISSISSA, MEER and Maders, two practical printers, are running the Tombstone Epitaph and apparently successfully.

The Yuma Times thus compliments its "hated rival," Stein, of the Sentinel: "Editor Stein of the Sentinel is in luck, and the Times is pleased to congratulate him upon his good fortune. While acting as Democratic Prison Secretary, he retains under President Harrison the position of United States Court Commissioner appointed thereto by the Cleveland administration, that of member of the county school examiner, appointed by Superintendent of Public Instruction Cheyney; Notary Public, appointed by ex-Governor Zúlic; and School Trustee, elected by the electors of District No. 1. Besides the important offices mentioned he capably edits the Sentinel, is agent for several insurance companies, and the resident member of the firm of Treichler & Co., dealers in agricultural implements, etc."

RIOT IN BRAZIL.

THE OUTGROWTH OF A RECESSION TO A GOVERNOR.

Absolutely No Monarchical Feeling Left in the Old Empire—The Republic Being Safely Founded Now.

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 5.—On May 13, the anniversary of the abolition of slavery in Brazil, a friend of Viscount de Pelotes, the first republican governor of the state of Rio Grande, Dupou, called a public meeting for the purpose of manifesting friendship for him.

Governor Silva Tavares and the chief of police considering the time ill chosen prohibited the gathering. It was attempted notwithstanding to make a manifestation and a riot ensued involving the loss of one life and the injuring of seven persons.

The Governor at once sent in his resignation and General Costa was appointed.

Close observation reveals that there is almost no indication of a desire on the part of the people to return to a monarchical form of government and the friends of the empire will hardly raise that question in the approaching election. They will content themselves in endeavoring to secure a sufficient number of members of Congress to elect a President who is friendly to them. The indications are, that Da Fonseca, the present chief of the provisional government, will be chosen.

The Tia Juana Lottery Scheme.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 29.—Reports to the effect that President Diaz had vetoed the bill for the establishment of a lottery at Tia Juana, Lower California, are incorrect. The Mexican government never consented to the scheme notwithstanding the efforts of influential persons connected with it.

THE DE GESSLER BANK.

A Big Deposit Forfeited by the Procrastinating Projectors.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 29.—The concession for the establishment of a bank granted Alexander de Gessler has been annulled because the bank has not started within the period fixed. A $200,000 forfeit has been paid into the National pawn institution.

Chicago's Great Growth.

CHICAGO, June 29.—Census Supervisor Gilbert estimates from the returns already received and a careful approximation of those to come Chicago's population at about 1,085,000.

SWEPT BY A TORNADO.

A Church Literally Torn to Pieces—Some Killed and Many Injured.

GALLATIN, TENN., June 29.—A tornado passed over the northern part of town this evening doing much damage to property. The African Methodist church was blown to pieces, two women fatally injured and a dozen others of the congregation seriously hurt. Minister Granville B. Gowan will also probably die. The wonder is that so few were injured, as the church was packed at the time. Trees, fences and outbuildings were destroyed throughout town and considerable damage was done to farm property in the country, but no further loss of life is reported.

Shooting Cowboys.

ARDMORE, I. T., June 29.—A messenger from the neighborhood of Deer Rock states that on the round-up last Friday evening James Andrews fatally shot John Rankin, who was in turn mortally wounded by Rankin's cousin. Both are well to do cattlemen.

JOAN OF ARC.

A Statue Impressively Unveiled to Her at Nancy, Yesterday.

PARIS, June 29.—Ministers Deville and Barbey unveiled the statue of Joan of Arc at Nancy, today. The ceremony was of an impressive character. Among those present were thirty descendants of the brothers of Joan of Arc,

SIMON OF DEATH.

Awful Heat in the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys.

Many Deaths in Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati.

A Special Bulletin Issued by the Signal Office Promises Cooler Weather for Today.

By the Associated Press.]

CHICAGO, June 29.—A cool breeze beginning late this afternoon ended the heated term in this city at least temporarily. The breeze did not put in an appearance, however, until the excessive heat made a record of eight fatal cases of prostration in the city since daylight. A large number of other persons succumbed, but up to this evening no other deaths are reported. The preceding twenty-four hours have marked the culmination of an almost unprecedented period of warmth. According to the revised police reports there were 18 deaths from sunstroke and 117 other cases of heat prostration, yesterday, fully one dozen of which are pronounced critical.

LATER.—Four more deaths were reported up to midnight. All four occurred early in the day in remote parts of the city.

Great Heat in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, June 29.—The hot weather which prevailed for a week past was checked somewhat this afternoon by heavy showers, which cooled the atmosphere to a considerable extent, but there is still a great deal of suffering as immediately after the rainclouds dispersed the sun sent the thermometer up to near the hundred mark again. Yesterday's list of prostrations numbered thirty-one, eight of which resulted fatally. Up to 11 o'clock tonight eleven prostrations were reported, two of them being fatal.

Two Deaths at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, June 29.—Eighteen cases of heat prostration today, two fatal.

Relief Predicted.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—A special bulletin issued by the signal service says the temperature continues high from the middle and lower Mississippi valley to the gulf, and the middle and Southern Atlantic coast. The maximum temperature today was 102° at Augusta, 98° at Montgomery, Nashville and St. Louis. Relief will be felt Monday in Missouri, Illinois and Indiana.

In the Interior.

CHICAGO, June 29.—Dispatches from many points in Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin tell of a slight moderation in temperature today, but not enough to afford much relief. Prostrations are still very numerous and there were quite a number of deaths at various points today. All cities in the states named report alarming increase in the mortality list, the weather being especially severe on children and invalids.

ON THE DIAMOND.

NO BALL PLAYING IN ALEXANDRIA ON SUNDAY.

Unless the Palms of the Officers Are Greased—Returns from the Various Games Played Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—During today's ball game between Washington and Worcester, near Alexandria, the county sheriff, accompanied by a justice of the peace, served warrants on both teams for violating the Sunday law. A trial was held at once and each man was fined $2 and costs amounting to $4 each. The game was then continued and warrants made out against Secretary Burkett of the Washington club on a charge of playing ball without a license. Hearing of the move, however, Burkett fled to this city.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The Stock Exchange today their fourth straight victory today defeating Oakland by a score of 9 to 6. Parrott, for the Stocktons, pitched a splendid game. Cobb pitched poorly. Oakland made four runs in the last inning.

SACRAMENTO, June 29.—Sacramento took the lead from San Francisco today by defeating them in a warlike game. The score was 19 to 10. Young, for San Francisco, had no control, and in the first inning forced three men in after having filed the bases. Five runs were made in this inning by the Sacramento, which virtually settled the game.

TOLEDO.—Athletic club called in the fourth inning on account of rain, 1 to 0 in favor of Columbus.

ST. LOUIS—St. Louis 13, Rochester 7. Louisville—Louisville 6, Brooklyn 3.

A Murderer Acquitted.

SPOKANE FALLS, June 29.—The jury in the case of Harry Baer on trial for the murder of Charles McCroskin, several months ago, last night returned a verdict of acquittal.

EL RIO REY.

He Is Not In Form To Go Into Any Race.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Talking about El Rio Rey Veterinary Crowley says: "I examined El Rio Rey at St. Louis and pronounced him a roarer and expressed the opinion that he would not race in his true form in the near future, at least, although the tracheotomy tube would greatly benefit him, as there is a possibility of the horse recovering. Mr. Winter has decided to send him home, and in the spring breed some of his mares to him and then try him again. While there are many races El Rio Rey could win in his present condition, Winter would not punish him by training him as he is. If the colt does not get perfectly well he will be kept in the stud."

MEXICAN BANDITS.

The Regulars Have a Brush With and Are Beaten.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 29.—Gen. Nicamor Valdes left San Juan on Wednesday with a force of fifty picked cavalrymen and marched sixty miles up the Bravo to a village called Pan. There he met a force of bandits whom he pluckily attacked, although they outnumbered his force two to one, but was routed. Seven of his men were killed, and five seriously wounded. The bandits all got away and it is not known how many of them were wounded.

EXCITING FOOT RACE.

Sunday Sport in Sacramento's Agricultural Park.

SACRAMENTO, June 29.—An exciting foot race took place at the Agricultural Park today between James Fitzgerald of San Francisco, and Fred J. Williams of San Jose. Williams conceded Fitzgerald fifty feet in a half mile run and was beaten by a foot in 2:08. About $2000 changed hands on the result.

ON THE CURBSTONE.

A CERTAIN Kentuckian, not unknown to the Court House, calls the two factions of the Methodist Episcopal church respectively the churches "North and South of Christ."

I ASKED a prominent Democratic politician the other day the secret of his success in electioneering. I knew that he kissed the babies and acted as though he wished to kiss the mamma, too, and shook hands with the honest grangers and usually had something in jug in the back part of the buggy to which he seductively led the hayseed voter—all this I knew, but 'twas not sufficient explanation. These little arts and rules are common to nearly all the candidates for public office. He drew me aside and whispered: "The fact of the matter is that I fluently speak the Missouri language!"

THE weather for the past few days has been pointing toward rain. Heavy, leaden clouds have been spread over the heavens and on oppressive feeling of dampness has been added to the warmth. Rain is not usual this early in the season. In the memory of old-timers but one rain has ever fallen in June, that was in '82. Has anywampers, however, are always found willing to bet that a shower will fall on July 4. To this rule last year was an exception, however.

WHAT weight chance observations often have! The other day I heard a local druggist telling how he came to locate in Phoenix. It seems that he was on a Southern Pacific train, bound eastward, going to El Paso, where he intended to establish a business. On the opposite side of the car aisle from him was a young lady, who spoke several times in praise of Phoenix, whither she was bound, and compared it finally with Los Angeles. The druggist was not prepossessed with the appearance of El Paso, and went on east, looking for a good location. In Chicago the overboard conversation came to his remembrance, and he returned to Arizona to visit his capital. He liked the prospect, invested his cash, and is now one of the fixtures, and is glad that he came.

If Postmaster-General Wanamaker would kindly improve the quality of the paper of the new two-cent stamp, issued to replace the "sickly green" fellow, the country would be duly grateful. The color is some improvement on the old, but the quality of the paper is very poor. It seems to be afflicted with "structural weakness" and if Mr. Wanamaker knew the amount of "cussing" it has provoked he would make a change in the interest of public morals. Even the postmasters complain.

FRANK PIXLEY, of the San Francisco Argonaut, is not the mildest mannered man in the world. Indeed, he is a good deal of a crank and hasn't much regard for other people's feelings. At a railway eating station way down in Missouri he met his match, the other day, however. Frank was not in very good humor. He was late and he was hungry—he always is hungry—the meal was not the best in the world and Pixley was irritable. He drifted into conversation with an Iowa Irishman, one of the Pope's Irish, whom Frank loves so well, and by and by blurted out: "What is your business?" "I live by my pen," meekly replied the Iowan. "Ah! Indeed," snapped Frank, surveying his neighbor somewhat critically, "then you are an editor or author?" "No, not exactly," came the response, "I raise hogs." Rattling music, during which Pixley made his exit.

I NOTICED a few nights ago, a number of boys circulating around among the gambling tables on the Fiesta grounds. This is wrong and should not be permitted. For the benefit of those who should forbid the entrance of the boys, a glance at the Penal Code, paragraphs 613 and 542, is advised. The first paragraph states that "No minor, under the age of sixteen years, shall be admitted at any time, to any saloon or place of entertainment where any spirituous liquors or wines, or intoxicating or malt liquors are sold, who are not accompanied by a parent or guardian. Any person who shall permit any such minor to remain in such place shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not less than $10 or more than $200, or by imprisonment for not less than five days or more than fifty days." Section 542 sets about the same penalty to those allowing minors to visit gambling saloons.

PERSONAL RIGHTS.

A Stinging Letter Thereon by Judge Tuley.

Protest Against Assumed Powers of Policemen.

A Somewhat Remarkable Letter That Will Cause Considerable Bitter Discussion.

By the Associated Press.]

CHICAGO, June 29.—The 10,000 people who attended the annual games of the Turners' societies of Chicago listened to a letter from a well-known jurist, Judge Murray F. Tuley, which aroused decided interest. The letter was addressed to the Chicago District Turners as members of the Personal Rights league, and was read by President Dyrnforth of the league. In the letter Judge Tuley says he regards the organization as one of the most important factors in the preservation of the liberties of the people now existing.

"Just so far," says the Judge, "as an individual is deprived of his personal rights, just to that extent is he in slavery. Every law which directly or indirectly forbids the exercise of or abridges a man's personal rights deprives him to that extent of his liberty. But the danger to liberty is not so much from the unequal or tyrannical legislation as from ignoring the written laws and usurpation by executive officers of the powers at any time or authority not granted by law, where (as in the city of Chicago) the police arrest upon bare suspicion and without warrant, persons not found in the act of violating law. When police undertake to determine who shall and who shall not meet in public assemblage to discuss political or economic questions; when trial by newspaper is substituted for trial by jury; when Original Packages of slander and vilification are hurled at the highest court of the Nation, because of decisions favoring personal rights and freedom of commerce; when upon almost every article of food, dress and clothing false prices are made by means of unlawful trusts and combinations, it is to establish personal rights leagues in every school district, in every county, in every State of the Union. Let your organization proclaim it to be the first duty of every citizen to obey the law, whether official or private. Demand that there shall be absolute equality for every citizen before the law in the administration of law and under the operation of the law. Persevere in your opposition to all summary and all other vicious legislation and teach the people that if they wish to preserve their liberties there must be eternal vigilance in the protection of personal rights."

CLARKSON'S VIEWS.

OUTLINES OF THE POLICY OF THE ADMINISTRATION ON SILVER.

Not Favorable to a Free Coinage Measure.—The General's Views on the Civil Service Force.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson arrived here today from Portland.

"My present trip," he said, "has no political significance whatever. It was undertaken solely with a view to seeing what could be done toward bettering the postal facilities of the Northwest."

"What is the policy of the administration on the silver question?" was asked.

"I think that President Harrison is friendly to the white metal, but he does not favor the coinage of more than $4,000,000 a month. There has been considerable revulsion of feeling East lately on the silver question and the friends of that commodity are not confined entirely to the West. It is not likely at present, at least, that either party will go to the extreme of granting all the radical silver men ask."

"Now, would you object to stating your views upon the question of civil service reform?"

"I have been so often misquoted on the subject, and have had so many charges laid to my door of violating the spirit of the civil service law, that I sometimes hesitate when it is mentioned. I believe that the Government of the United States is a political and not a business organization. I do not believe the Democrats can administer the affairs of a Republican administration as well as Republicans, any more than I believe that the Methodists can carry on the affairs of the Baptist church better than the Baptists."

"Is it your opinion that the McKinley bill will become a law?"

"With some modifications to suit the West, yes. The policy of protection is gaining strength in the West."

What Makes a Pretty Woman?

A pretty woman must first of all have clear-cut regular features. She must have full, clear eyes. She must have a skin that is above reproach, untouched by rouge or powder. She must have glossy hair that has never known the touch of bleach or dye. She must have a good figure, plump enough, yet slender enough, though never suggestive of an angle. She must have a white, expressive hand, preferably a small one, but not necessarily, if it is well kept and white. She must have small ears and a throat that is like a marble column for her head. She must know how to put on her clothes or she loses half her beauty. She must fully understand what best suits her in the way of hair dressing and coiffure closely to that. A woman may have all these attractions, and unless her own personality is charming, unless she has tact, it dawns on you after you have seen her once or twice that she is not a pretty woman, but a pretty doll.

THE Democratic papers would be delighted to have President Harrison veto the Silver bill when it finally passes.
